HANDPRINT LEGACY

The gripping tale of leaving behind everything she knew to learn another language and serve in another country, to being betrayed by leadership and bootstrapping her way to founding an international business and leading an international movement will leave your audience inspired and motivated to take action with their own transformational message that will change lives in our world for the better wherever they are.

Your listeners will enjoy this expat, homeschool mom, business owner's unforgettable message of how we can all leverage the message we've been given to grow a mission and ultimately a movement. Katie Hornor has been thrilling international audiences since her late teens and this truly one-of-a-kind message will have your audience excitingly talking about it for years to come! From her experience developing a movement and training leaders for the past 12 years, she will share unique insights into how we can live out the proven mantra of "your message matters."

This has been one of the best workshops I've ever attended. I've been to conferences where it's all about the creator of the content or service provider. But, you have come out of the gate swinging. No fluff! Meat and potatoes. Thank you!
